I am so impressed with your responsibility in completing these assignments! I love all the questions I am getting, I know you are taking this seriously! I hope you are all staying safe and being creative to have fun! Here are more assignments if you have finished all of yesterday's work.

Reading:

The plan was to start a poetry unit this past week. I am attaching a link to a video that discusses the first figurative language component we were going to learn about, metaphors!! Please watch 😊

Spelling:

Write ALL of your spelling words in ABC order.

Vocabulary:

Review Lesson 26 words on the definitions page and then complete the fill in the blank page.

Writing:

Embedded with Social Studies...

Social Studies:

Yesterday, you explored around a website on The Stone Age. Write a paragraph (5 sentences) on the differences between two items you clicked on from yesterday's website. If you need to go back to the website, please do so.

Science:

Yesterday, you read a Simple Machines booklet. Today you are going to complete a worksheet based off of what you read. You may open the booklet attachment if you need help.

Math:

Complete some iReady Lessons.
