Hey everyone! Hang in there! Any questions, please email me! Also, you might have read on the website that I will be setting up Zoom chats with you all on Monday. I will be sending a sign up to you and your parents to sign up for a time on Monday to video chat with me. I want to check in and see how things are going and if you have any other questions!

Reading:

We will continue practice with poetry. Yesterday, you read a poem about metaphors and then wrote some metaphors yourself. Today, read the poem about Similes and complete the corresponding worksheet.

Spelling:

No spelling this week.

Vocabulary:

Read over new words for Lesson 27

Writing:

Write similes about each person in your family and use the template that the worksheet from reading provides:

Example: My sister, Emily, is as sassy as Tinkerbell.

My mom, Sue, is as sweet as a piece of apple pie with ice cream.

My dad, Bill, is as strong as John Cena.

Social Studies:

Explore some more of the website

<https://www.dkfindout.com/us/history/mesopotamia/>

to begin learning about Mesopotamia. Look around and click something that look interesting to you! We will continue to practice with this topic in social studies for the next couple of weeks.

Science:

Complete the Simple Machines Identification of everyday objects worksheet #s 12-24. If you don't know an item, google it or ask an adult to find it for you in your house to look at.

Math:

Purple Group:

Continue working on Unit 3 Assessment pg. 22. I have again attached print out fraction circle pieces if you choose to use them during completion of pg. 22

Orange Group:

Continue working on Unit 3 Assessment pg. 27. I have attached a PDF of book pages for you to use if you need help. I realize some of you had trouble with the website so this should be easier! 😊

YOU'RE DOING GREAT!!!!!!
